

A Brief Profile of Dr. Srinarahari

Dr. Srinarahari has been awarded doctoral degree in Science Fiction by Kuvempu University, Karnataka. He has earned B.Sc., B.Ed., MA (Literature) degrees and Diploma in Marathi. He is a writer, critic, columnist, editor, reviewer, publisher, illustrator, bookseller, printer, photographer, reports to Locus, constructed the IASFS website and a google guide. He has put in a total of 40 years of experience in Government of Karnataka, and retired as Principal. He is now with Animaster College, Bangalore (A College for Animation and Designs) as a principal for the last 8 years. He has been awarded Educational Excellence Award for the year 2021.

He is the Vice-President of Asian Science Fiction Association; Secretary – General of Indian Association for Science Fiction Studies ®, Bangalore, Karnataka, India (Please visit: <https://iasfs.in>);. As a Secretary- General he has organized 15 National and 5 International IASFS Science Fiction Conferences in collaboration with a number of organizations and IASFS team members. He has conducted Science Fiction Short Story Writing Workshops for all ages and levels. He has worked with Odanata (an interactive literary club); served as President of Mysore Vijayanagara Kaalaji Samithi; President of Hassan District English Teachers' Association in the past. He can be reached over email: doctorhari567@gmail.com;

%% %%