Issue of e-certificates:

IASFS has generated 5 kinds of e-certificates namely,

1. E-Attendance Certificate-meant for those who really attend the conference at least for a single session.
2. E-Paper Presentation Certificate- meant for those who have made video presentation of the paper during the conference
3. E- participation certificate meant for those who have partaken as Moderator/panelists for the exclusive session: Issues Related to Research
4. E – participation certificate meant for those who have partaken as Moderator/panelists for the exclusive session: My Experiments with Science Fiction Writings.
5. E-participation certificate meant for those who partook as Distinguished Invited Guests who have delivered keynote address/special lecture/inaugural address/presidential address and others; chairpersons, anchor persons, convener, member of the organizing team, member of the technical team, moderators, and suitable for any other category.

The recipients will receive a mail on 09.04.2023: 19.00 hours onwards to their registered email id's the link for the respective applicable category of the certificate for which one would be eligible for. That's a google.doc form to be filled part A and B and submit. Within two minutes the recipient would get the auto generated certificate. But it may be in one's primary, update, promotion or junk mail even. Hence, one has to search, download and then get any number of copies- color or black white.

For any further enquiry, or clarification one could mail such issues to the Convener on her email id: infoisfc23@gmail.com;
